U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

FISHERIES RESOURCES and HATCHERIES

Fishery Resources biologists in this division are responsible for coordinating all fishery related matters on U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service owned and/or managed lands in the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, and Missouri (Upper Mississippi River). All management activities will be in concert with the various other state and federal programs.

SPECIAL AGENTS

Law enforcement duties are conducted on two levels along the Mississippi River in relation to U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service responsibilities. Qualified refuge enforcement officers on Upper Mississippi River and Mark Twain Refuges perform law enforcement duties within the Refuges while special or resident agents are assigned duties on basically a statewide basis to enforce all Federal fish and wildlife laws. This section lists senior resident agents by state.
